Financial Affidavit
for International Students on F-1 Visas
Fall 2026 / Spring 2027

To receive an F-1 or J-1 visa, applicants must provide evidence that they have sufficient funds to cover their first year of study in the U.S. Costs indicated on the table are for standard undergraduate and graduate programs. Some graduate professional programs, such as MBA and credential, require higher tuition. Please refer to the program website for cost information if you are enrolling in a graduate professional program.

Projected Cost of Attendance for one Academic Year
(2 semesters)

	Undergraduate	Graduate
Tuition and Fees*	$20,810	$19,690 **
Food & Housing	$19,940	$19,940
Other Expenses	$5,702	$5,702
Total	$46,452	$45,332

* Based on 12 units/semester for undergraduates, 9 units/semesters for graduates.
International students are charged a Nonresident Tuition fee of $471 per unit.
 Graduate Business Professional Fee: $321/unit for required courses in the MBA program

Other Expenses include books, materials, supplies, transportation, personal expenses and international student insurance.

The California State University system (CSU) makes every effort to keep student costs to a minimum. Fees listed in published schedules or student accounts may need to be increased when public funding is inadequate. Therefore, the CSU must reserve the right, even after initial fee payments are made, to increase or modify any listed fees without notice, until the date when instruction for a particular semester has begun.

Please note that international travel and extraordinary personal expenses are not included in the cost estimate above.
