

*Important information for Extended Education degree program applicants for Spring 2024.
Please save this email for future reference.*

Thank you for submitting your application to Sonoma State University! You have taken an important step in your higher education journey by applying to SSU, and we are thrilled that you are considering becoming a Seawolf. This email serves as confirmation that we have received your Spring 2024 application.

As a reminder, you applied for a degree program that is administered by Extended Education, which has its own application review and acceptance procedures. Course registration and fees will also differ from state-support programs at SSU.

What happens next? You can track your application status and view required documents using the To-Do List feature within your MySSU. To set up your MySSU, visit the SSU Online Services Password Tool. You can find instructions for accessing the MySSU To Do List on the Track Your Application Status page. We encourage you to periodically check MySSU for information about your application status for the Spring 2024 term.

Important next steps:

- No official transcripts are required at this time. Transfer applicants are reviewed on self-reported information provided on the application. In the event that we need your official transcripts, we will indicate this in your MySSU To-Do List. You may send transcripts yourself (provided they are still in their official sealed envelopes and have been printed within the last two years) or have them sent directly to Sonoma State University. Please follow the instructions for Sending Transcripts to Sonoma State.
- It is your responsibility to check your MySSU account for updates, requirements, and deadlines. All documents must be submitted by the deadline indicated on your MySSU To-Do List. You will be notified via email at the address provided on your Cal State Apply application as each document is received.

Our online resources are a great and informative way to learn about why Sonoma State is the right choice for you, all from the comfort of your own home. Please take advantage of these resources to learn about our university and how we can support your journey both in education and in achieving a fulfilling future.
