Get into the Sonoma State of Mind.
Community with a global perspective.

At Sonoma State, you’ll experience rigorous academics and a close-knit community that nurtures intellectual, social, and personal growth.

Study with professors who encourage civic engagement, social responsibility, and global awareness; learn from dedicated student support staff who help you navigate your individual path.

Develop deep and sustaining connections with fellow students and be empowered to become a strong and thoughtful leader in your career, community, and beyond.

My mission here at Sonoma State is to be friendly and inclusive to make each person feel safe and at home.

A campus created for connection.

The Sonoma State experience is all about community, and with nearly 200 student-led clubs and organizations on campus, including 20 active sororities and fraternities, there is a place in the Seawolf community for everyone.

Supporting growth.

Our student support advisors are immersed in campus life, eager to help you discover leadership roles, engage in mentorship opportunities, build community, and find your niche.

Prioritizing wellness.

We create a culture of care. Our medical and mental health care teams provide support in all areas, including nutrition education, grief counseling, and group workshops in resiliency, learning skills, relationship building, and more.

Sonoma County To-Do List:

- Take in sweeping vistas from a range of walking, biking, and hiking trails surrounding campus.
- Enjoy live music on the lawn at the Green Music Center, attend an outdoor film screening at Sonoma Mountain Village.
- Spend a Sunday floating the Russian River.
- Discover the bounty of local farms at nearby farmers' markets.
- Drive out to the coast for a day on the beach — and keep an eye out for migrating whales!

With 4,200 acres of preserved lands just beyond the campus, you can take your education outside, conduct research in living laboratories, and explore the boundless beauty and ecological wonders of the region.

SSU has brought me so many positive memories, experiences, and perspectives. I know I will leave with people to cherish for a lifetime.”

- Will Montgomery III

History

Nourishing relationships.

Food fuels the adventurous and curious spirit of our campus, and that community is created through the sharing of meals. That’s why we created The Kitchens, a modern dining hall with long communal tables where you’ll connect with fellow Seawolves throughout the day.

A setting that inspires.

Our campus sits in the heart of Sonoma County, nestled between gently sloping hills and rocky mountain peaks, between bustling towns and serene countryside. Just an hour’s drive from both San Francisco and spectacular stretches of coastline, there is always something new to discover.

Apply for Financial Aid

We understand that students and families are concerned about the rising cost of college.

We encourage you to explore all of your financial aid options — grants, scholarships, work-study opportunities on campus, and loans — so you can pursue your dreams at SSU. Many of our students are pleasantly surprised by how much financial support is available.
